Research and teaching IDEAS MI Pirogov IN THE CONTEXT OF HIGHER EDUCATION REFORM IN UKRAINE

Summary

On the base of concrete historical and comparative methods, and problem-chronological analysis, has been traced the "point of intersection" of outstanding educator and social activist M.I. Pirogov's ideas as for university education reforming in the Russian Empire of the late nineteenth century with the fundamental principles of the law of Ukraine "On Higher Education" (August 2014). In particular, it's about organic combination in higher education system – both, contemporary and modern scientific research and educational process; of democratization, decentralization of university life, collegiality in the management of higher education institutions; creative application of the domestic higher education of international experience. Results of the research revealed a coincidence of points of views and lines of distinction. General conclusion is to ensure that any reforms in all times requires not only new laws, but also new people who will implement them.
