

U.D.C. [378.4:631.1]:33:005

KISIL
Mykola I.,
candidate of economic sciences,
Senior Research Fellow,
Head of department
National Scientific Center "Institute of agrarian economy" NAAS
(a city of Kyiv)

THE DEVELOPMENT OF ECONOMICS AND EDUCATION IN KHARKIV NATIONAL AGRARIAN UNIVERSITY NAMED V.V.
DOKUCHAEV FOR ITS 200-YEAR HISTORY

Summary

Given the features of development of economic science and education at the Kharkiv National Agrarian University named after V. V. Dokuchayev, which is 200 years since its foundation. It is established that emergence and development of the scientific and educational centers is caused by objective requirements of society, therefore their life cycle long and consists of the consecutive periods. In development of the studied university it is offered to allocate the Marimont's, New- Alexandria, Soviet and Ukrainian periods. Patterns of development of science and education at the agrarian University is to increase the importance of economic research and education, coverage of the most important for economic development aspects, especially strengthening the importance of economic research and education activities of the university in the historical development and especially during crisis periods, rector's personal participation in economic researches and education or in promoting them.

Keywords: Agrarian University, periods of economic science and education, political economy, teaching economic disciplines, Economics Department.